RE: MUR 5506
Emily's List, Castor for Senate, and Florida Women Vote! – A Project of Emily's List

Dear Ms. Glasser:

On August 12, 2005, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint dated August 2, 2004, and found that on the basis of the information provided in your complaint, and information provided by the above-named respondents, there is no reason to believe Emily's List and Britt Cocanour, in her official capacity as Treasurer, or Campaign for Florida's Future, formerly known as Betty Castor for U.S. Senate, and William R. Lewis, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a. In addition, the Commission dismissed the complaint as to "Florida Women Vote! – A Project of Emily's List." Accordingly, on August 12, 2005, the Commission closed the file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lawrence H. Norton
General Counsel
